

621—5.8(20) Destruction of ballots. In the absence of litigation over the validity or outcome of an election and after a period of 60 days has elapsed from the date of the certification, decertification, or noncertification of an employee organization pursuant to a certification or decertification election, the board may destroy the ballots involved in such election.